

The Scholarship Program assists persons who are pursuing an academic course leading to a church related vocation. United Methodist Women have been helping deserving students who were called to be spiritual leaders in the United Methodist Church since the 1940s

People who are members of the United Methodist Church and live within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, who wish to answer God's call to work in a church related vocation are eligible

Scholarship Program

Western North Carolina Conference

United Methodist Women

Colleges or Universities to attend:

Must be enrolled in:

Bennett College,
Brevard College, Greensboro University,
High Point University, or
Pfeiffer University

The Scholarship Program is funded by seven endowed scholarship funds (Fannie Mitt Case, Carrie Forbis Ferguson, Rhonda Robbins Memorial, Weaver Memorial, Ethylene Shelley, Herbin-Motley and Ernest R. Ellis and Lithie Phillips Ellis) and the General Scholarship Fund.

Contributions to the General Scholarship Fund are encouraged. Scholarships can be endowed at any time. With more contributions to the General Scholarship Fund and more endowed scholarships, we can assist more students. This is a wonderful way to assist in perpetuity those called into ministry with in the United Methodist Church. As United Methodist Women we emphasize the importance of Undesignated Giving. It provides ministries with women, children and youth that are funded by the Woman's Division.

Giving to our Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women Scholarship Funds is encouraged after fulfilling our first responsibility of giving to Undesignated Giving.

Application deadline:

March 1 of each year.

Interviews scheduled in April.
