NEW IN 2006 !

YOUTH READING PROGRAM

Another new and exciting reading program is unfolding this year. Realizing we have many teen units in the Western North Carolina Conference, we want the young women to be involved in the reading program. You suggested and we listened!!

The Reading Program has exciting books for youth, offering a wide variety of subjects that will ensure spiritual enhancement, helping to be mindful of social issues and global concerns. The books are magnificent tools for interpreting the Purpose of United Methodist Women.

We would like to report the success of this program to Women's Division and would appreciate any comments you might have. Please send these to Bettie Sharpe Rowe, WNCC Secretary of Program Resources, 50 Cub Drive, Thomasville, NC 27360 or by e.mail to cnbsrowe@northstate.net. Certificates will be mailed in a timely manner as they are received.

Complete information regarding the Youth Reading Program is available on our conference UMW web site at: www.gbgm-umc.org/wnccumw.. Follow the link for "Program Resources".

Help the young people in your life feel the excitement of participation in the Youth Reading Program!

United Methodist Women Youth Reading Program Guidelines/Suggestions

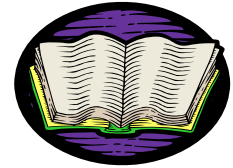

- ◆ Ask all youth to participate
- ◆ Choose any four books from the Youth or Regular Reading List.
- ◆ Mission Study books may be read for credit.
- ◆ Youth ages 13-18 participate
- ◆ Report names of readers to Conference Secretary of Program Resources or district SPR
- ◆ Order books from Service Center, obtain at district or conference events or from Public Library.
- ◆ Guidance and information may be obtained from district SPR, Conference SPR or web site.
- ◆ Seek promotion from youth counselor/director
